EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OLD CROW, YUKON

The Vuntut Gwitchin have boundless pride in their ancient cultural heritage and ancestral homelands. We exercise our inherent right to self-government, to take responsibility for the general welfare of our citizens, and to provide for the good government of our community, lands and resources.

THE OPPORTUNITY

With your passion for being part of and serving the community, you are seeking a fulfilling leadership role that will engage and inspire you. This is an opportunity to make a significant contribution to the Vuntut Gwitchin First Nation future direction, growth and success. As the Executive Director, you will work with Chief and Council to develop and lead execution of the strategic direction and forward-thinking vision, mission and values of the VGFN. You will maintain effective relationships and inspire employees, citizens, clients and all stakeholders.

The Executive Director identifies and provides oversight to manage strategic, operational and financial risks. You will be responsible for leading, planning, managing and implementing Vuntut Gwitchin Government programs, services and policies in accordance with the Governance Act, Resolutions and Strategic Plans. You will be responsible for the management and supervision of departmental directors.

THE PERSON

As the Executive Director, you are a visionary who brings a balanced leadership approach between managing external engagement and responsibilities while at the same time fostering a strong internal organization as the VGG continues to evolve in response to Citizen/Community needs. You will inspire, motivate and mentor others within the organization while taking accountability to deliver and build on the culture of inclusivity and care for employees and clients.

YOUR QUALIFICATIONS

You will have a Masters Degree in Business, Public Administration, First Nations Governance or the Human Sciences supplemented by formal leadership training. Your experiences at the senior management level, preferably within a First Nations environment, government or a related industry will be essential to your success in this position. You will have 5 or more years of direct and relevant experience at the senior management level.

Having demonstrated social responsibility, working with other First Nations Councils and provided leadership in developing an inclusive and transparent employment culture, you have demonstrated the skills and experience to provide Executive leadership to the VGG. Your knowledge and experience in working with multiple stakeholders in a First Nations environment, demonstrated community leadership, and passion for the mission will enhance your ability to achieve expected results.

Strong understanding of the Self Government Agreement (SGA), First Nations Final Agreement (FNFA), VG Constitution and the VG Governance Act are assets.

The successful candidate will be appointed by Chief and Council. Preference will be given to qualified VGFN Citizens.

The VGG offers a competitive compensation and benefits package. Salary range is from $116,226 - $151,113 which includes an $8,200 Remoteness Allowance. Housing is available for this position. Relocation assistance is available.
